

Visit the Heart of “The Hill” on the Ten Toe Express

Total Walk Distance: 1 mile

The Italian-American community known as “The Hill” is a proud neighborhood of small businesses within walking distance of homes. This easy walk offers tempting shopping and eating with no hill to climb. The Fair Mercantile Building - a former department store adapted to restaurant, retail, and office use - has public restrooms.

Directions:

- Take MetroLink to CWE Station, then transfer to MetroBus #8 Bates-Macklind southbound.
- Exit the bus on Shaw at Marconi, next to Shaw’s Coffee.
- Turn left on Marconi to walk two blocks to St Ambrose. In front of the church you will see “The Immigrants”, a statue by St Louisan Rudy Torrini.
- Pass the church to turn right on Bischoff.
- Walk one block on Bischoff to Edwards then turn right for one block.
- Turn left on Daggett to Berra Park, named for former Alderman “Midge” Berra whose statue can be found near the corner of Daggett and Macklind.
- Turn right on Macklind to reach Shaw.
- Turn right on Shaw to return to your starting point at Marconi and the northbound bus.

To Increase Your Steps:

- Explore more of the neighborhood north of I-44. Turn left on Marconi, walking toward the fence.
- Turn left to take the pedestrian bridge over the highway.

The Heart of “The Hill”

