

Take the Ten Toes Express to Ruth Porter Park Trail on the St. Vincent Greenway

TOTAL DISTANCE TO THE TRAIL FROM DELMAR

METROLINK STATION: .7 mile. Total length of walk mapped: 3 miles

Ruth Porter Park offers an inviting environment for people of all ages to walk, visit and play. Amenities include umbrellas, bright benches, banners, art, street lighting, and a splash fountain at the south end of the park that is open during the summer months. When the Loop Trolley is constructed, the greenway will continue along the eastern side of DeBaliviere Avenue south to Forest Park.

Directions:

- Board MetroLink to the Delmar MetroLink Station.
- Head Left on Des Peres Avenue toward Delmar Ave. as you leave the station.
- Turn left on Delmar
- Walk to DeBalievire Avenue and turn left into Ruth Porter Park
- Continue north on the Trail to Etzel Avenue and turn left at Etzel.
- Follow Etzel Avenue to Skinker Blvd.
- Turn left on Skinker and walk to Delmar.
- Turn left on Delmar until you reach Des Peres Ave.
- Turn left on Des Peres and you arrive back at the station.

Total length of GRG Trail: 1.3 miles

- Surface: Asphalt
- Best for: Biking, Walking, Running
- Parking: No
- Restrooms: No

WALK HIGHLIGHTS:

Visit on a Saturday morning in the summers and catch the Better Family Life Farmers Market. If you walk the entire route mapped you will return to the Loop and walk past Piccione Pastry, the Great Rivers Greenway Offices, the Pageant, Big Shark Bicycle Company, several restaurants, shops and more.

Ruth Porter Park Trail on St. Vincent Greenway

