

Visit Bohemian Hill on the Ten Toe Express

TOTAL WALK DISTANCE: .50 mile or 1 mile

The neighborhood north of Soulard Market was once home to thousands of immigrants from Bohemia. This half-mile walk down hill takes you past the buildings of St. John Nepomuk parish, where you can see brickwork spelling that name in Czech – a detail missed when you speed by in a car.

Directions:

- Ride MetroLink to Civic Center MetroLink Station
- Then board MetroBus #10 Gravois-Lindell in front of the Sheraton for a short ride to LaFayette & Tucker streets.
- Exit the bus at LaFayette to walk downhill, passing the parish hall and church.
- Turn left in front of the church on 11th street
- Turn right on Julia
- Turn left on Menard for two blocks. Leisure Park will be on your left.
- A right turn on Marion will bring you to a footbridge over I-55. Crossing this bridge to the Market gives you a view of the Arch.
- Visit the Market and return uphill to the #10 bus-stop to Civic Center.

Alternate Route:

- If the return walk up-hill is daunting, you may return to MetroLink from the bus-stop at 7th & LaFayette opposite the Market. #30 Soulard will return you to Civic Center.

