

Stroll Down Ferguson Citywalk on the Ten Toe Express

TOTAL WALK DISTANCE: .5 mile minimum

Citywalk is the Ferguson “downtown” business district of this historic railroad suburb, offering a diversity of shopping and dining options in a pedestrian-friendly setting. This short walk, which covers six blocks of N. Florissant Rd. south of the Farmers Market, introduces you to some of the exciting new developments here. (More info: www.fergusoncitywalk.com) MetroBus #45 is the “trolley” serving the area from North Hanley Station.

- Take MetroLink to North Hanley Station, then transfer to #45 to Ferguson.
- Exit the bus anywhere on N. Florissant Rd. before passing under the railroad trestle (next to Whistle Stop Cafe).

OR

- Board #36 Spanish Lake from North Hanley and exit the bus on Suburban Ave.
- A walk from the trestle to The Plaza at 501, a new community gathering space, is exactly one-half mile.

Increase your steps:

- Retrace your route on the other side of the street.
- Walk farther north or south in the Citywalk. Explore sidestreets.
- Combine this walk with the Ten Toe maps for Heart of Ferguson or Ted Jones Trail.
