

Ten Toes Express to the Heart of Downtown

TOTAL WALK DISTANCE: .90 mile

This walk from 8th & Pine MetroLink Station takes you past several of downtown's landmark buildings. You will also see restoration and new construction. There are many options for breakfast, shopping, and lunch so feel free to make a day of it. For a panoramic view of the city visit Patty Long's Point of View (restaurant) on the 30th floor of the Laclede Gas Building at 720 Olive.

Directions:

- Take MetroLink to the 8th & Pine MetroLink Station
- Exit MetroLink, turn left on 8th Street.
- Cross Pine, and continue to walk south on 8th St. for one block.
- When you reach Chestnut, turn left. Walk east toward the Arch. Louis Sullivan's Wainwright Building is on your left.
- Enter Kiener Plaza at the corner of Chestnut and 7th Street. You will see the Old Courthouse in front of you.
- Walk along the edge of Kiener Plaza following Chestnut to Broadway.
- Turn left on Broadway for two blocks to Olive and turn left. The Metropolitan Square Building is on your left. You can "cut the corner" - and see the murals - by walking through the lobby on weekdays.
- Continue west on Olive past Macy's back to 8th Street.
- You may turn left to return to MetroLink to complete a .5 mile loop.

To Increase Your Steps:

- Turn right on 8th Street to continue north past the Old Post Office.
- Take a left on St. Charles at the Mayfair Hotel and walk one block west.
- Turn left on 9th Street in front of the Orpheum Theatre and return to the Old Post Office (public restrooms are available near the west entrance).
- Turn left on Olive or Pine to return to 8th Street.
- Turn right on 8th Street to return to MetroLink.
