

Visit Kirkwood Junction on the Ten Toes Express

TOTAL WALK DISTANCE: .66 mile

Kirkwood Junction in the heart of Kirkwood is a lively shopping area in the vicinity of the historic Amtrak train station. The historic train station still serves Amtrak passengers thanks to the efforts of local volunteers. Kirkwood Farmers' Market is nearby and is open Thurs. – Sat. from April – October. (Sorry, no Sunday service on this route.)

Directions:

- Take MetroLink to Shrewsbury Station, then transfer to #56 Webster-Kirkwood.
- Board the #56 MetroBus to Kirkwood.
- Exit the bus on Kirkwood Road near the Amtrak Station. (This is a loop route which changes direction a.m./p.m. so be sure to ask your driver if you need directions.)
- Keeping the station on your left, walk west one block on Argonne.
- Turn left on Clay and walk the railroad overpass.
- Turn left on Madison. City Hall is ahead on your left.
- Cross Kirkwood Rd. to Station Plaza, a new mixed-use development for both residences and retail business
- Turn left. Walk north along the Plaza to the railroad tracks. Cross carefully!
- Turn right on Argonne to the Farmers' Market.
- Turn left from the Market at Taylor, and then left on Argonne to return to the bus stop.

