

Richland Creek Greenway Trail on the Ten Toe Express

TOTAL WALK DISTANCE: 2 miles minimum

Richland Creek Greenway Trail is the official name of the six-mile biking and hiking path through the city of Belleville to Southwestern Illinois College. It can be seen from the train as you approach and leave Belleville Station. It passes through several little parks in Belleville, crossing Richland Creek and connecting to Main St. west of Public Square.

- Reward yourself for this adventure with a visit to the venerable Maxwell's Restaurant.
- Take MetroLink to Belleville Station.
- Turn right on the bike path. Keep going. And going !
- Turn right when you reach Main St. at 6th St. Maxwell's and other eateries, along with antique shops, are located between 8th and 11th Sts.
- If the return trip on foot is too much for you, board MetroBus #1 on Main St. east to Belleville Station or west to Fairview Hts. Station.
- A worthwhile detour on the eastbound bus ride is the immense St Peter's Cathedral, one block from St. Elizabeth's Hospital. MetroBus #1 stops at the hospital.
