

Wydown Park and other green spaces on the Ten Toes Express

TOTAL WALK DISTANCE: 1.5 miles one-way

Wydown Park is a green bowl set below street level on Wydown Blvd. in Clayton. It is one of many enchanting discoveries to be made when you forsake your automobile for walking. You may wish to bring a picnic basket !

- Take MetroLink to Skinker Station, then transfer to MetroBus #1 Gold or #2 Red southbound on Skinker.
- Exit the bus near the Edison Theatre at Washington University.
- Cross Forsyth Blvd. behind the bus shelter. Walk west on Forsyth.
- Look for the Elizabeth Danforth Butterfly Garden on your left. Walk on in!

OR

- Continue to Wallace Drive and turn left. After you pass the Butterfly Garden you will be following a brick wall. Look for a doorway in the wall, then walk through it. You have reached the dead-end of Ellenwood Ave.
- Walk forward then turn right on University Lane. Follow University Lane to Wydown.
- Cross Wydown then turn left to walk alongside the park.
- Turn right on DeMun Ave. Continue on DeMun to reach Concordia Park.
- Continue past Concordia to reach Clayton Ave. where you may board a #16 City Limits to return to MetroLink at Skinker (northbound) or at Shrewsbury (southbound).

If you didn't bring a picnic basket you may wish to stop for refreshments at Kaldi's Coffee or My Daddy's Cheesecake.

